CAPT. GASTON'S STRETCH RUN

Closed Up Many Lengths in Short Space and Beat Chandoo Handily-Miss Crawfords' Bright Race.

It is not entirely improbable that when some of the Jockeys who have been rid-ing at the Poir Grounds present their admission hadges at the race track gates this morning that they will be taken up and their possessors denied admission. This is not official. Judging, however, from Judge Brady's temper last night it is not improbable, Juste F., backed from 12 to 1 to 4 to L won the feature race from I'an McKenna by a nose. Not a single handcapter gave Josic F. a chance. The race seemed to lie between Tuby Tosa, Dan McKenna ing a chance to show.

McKenna and Tuby opened favorites about le. That seemed rottenal. J. K. Hughes began to bot $100 bills on Flintlock and there was a rush after him. HOW SHEEHAN GOT MOUNT.

Then it developed that Jockey Sherhan's valet had on Thursday begged Mr. Hughes to let Sheehan ride Plintlock instead of Taylor, who was engaged. This Mr. morning Sheehan's valet again besought Mr. Hughes for the mount, adding that Flintiack could not lose if Sheehan rode him. Mr. Hughes consulted with Handi-capper Maginn, who told him Sheehan was a better rider than Taylor, and that Film-lock could probably who under him. Hughes then put up Sheehan and bet his money.

As it is a most woesual thing for the leading rider at a track to solich mounts, especially when another boy is already engaged, the wise fellows who heard how Sheelan came to ride Flintbeck figured that Mr. Hughes's berse would be given a complimentary race. They stiributed Sheelan's interse deater to ride him to the fact that he wanted to ride a sure MONEY ON JOSE P.

All at once and of a "suddist" huge same of money came in on the extreme outsider, Jose F. They backed her from outsider, Jone F. They hacked her from Ex to it. Then those who had played Printlock began to get sorry. They changed their milid about who was to be "showed to." They then said that Taylor was too ignormal and uncertain to be trusted with the care of Flintlock. So they height out on Jose F. LOW THE BACE WAS RUN.

It was a good start. Mallory set a slow parce. Dan McKenna faid by him, hard pare. Dan McKenna hald by him, hard held. Taby Tesa followed, with Flint-lock fourth and Jesie F. Last. Josie bit the roft going on the flist turn and crawled for forty yords. With any pace in the race she would have list right there. But she had all the time she need-ed and on minutes for difference between clocks.

At the stable turn McKenna, who had his mouth wide open, went past Mailary. Taby Tesa and Pantitock moved up as one horse. The four came around the turn abreast. They did not go away from Mallery. On the stretch turn loste moved up fast. She went to them in 100 yards, closing ten lengths. Then Dan McKenna heoked her and ran head and head with her to the wire. Josho drew away in the last ferty vards and won by a head. She closed eight lengths in the skreenth before it less quarter, but could not gain a half aught on McKenna in the stretch run.
